For immediate release: December 20, 2002

EDWIN SCHLOSSBERG

GRAVITY ASSUMES DISASSOCIATION

JANUARY 11 – FEBRUARY 8

An exhibition of works by Edwin Schlossberg entitled Gravity Assumes Disassociation will open on January 11th at the Ronald Feldman Gallery. The exhibition consists of seventeen drawings created in 2002 and ten pieces created in 1977. The earlier works were the stimulus for the current pieces.

The drawings are done with pencil, crayon, and ink on sheets of translucent vellum. By presenting levels of meaning in the layers of the drawings and size relationship and color of the words, the works explore the relationship between symbolic ideas and their physical embodiment.

In addition to his accomplishments in poetry and visual art, Schlossberg is founder of and principal designer for ESI Design, a leading exhibit and brand experience design firm. His artwork has appeared in numerous one-man shows, including six prior exhibitions at the Feldman Gallery.
